

BABEL IN DE JACHTLAAN Shanghai, 19 October 2010

It is with great pleasure that we invite you, on behalf of the Living Stone Gateway to China travellers¹ to attend a Talk & Dinner 'Babel in de Jachtlaan' in Shanghai, on 19 October.

Guest speaker is Mrs Liang Qin, Legal Council to Western Multinationals in P.R.China.
Mrs Liang will provide us with enriched insights in dealing with the various Chinese authorities and business practices throughout the country.

Mr Bruno Georges, the Consul-General of Belgium and Mrs Bruno Georges will be our guest of honour at this event.

Liang Qin holds a Master Degree in International, Commercial and European Law (UK) and a Bachelor in Jurisprudence from East China University. A native Shanghai entrepreneurial woman, Qin handles cases and emergencies with clients and government authorities successfully.

Liang Qin: 'It is my pleasure to introduce the Chinese market to our Western guests, and I hope it will be a good practice for your future business.'

'Babel in de Jachtlaan' is Living Stone's nomadic networking concept. It is our belief that grass-roots intercultural dialogue is often the best way to build bridges between people of different nations. Expatriates on assignment and Chinese and Belgian business people in Shanghai are most welcome to assist to this transnational event and learning opportunity. We look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,
Lutgart Duser
Project Manager Living Stone Centre
